SOCIETY WELCOMES
THE PASSING OF LENT

Coming Week Holds Many Gaieties to Make Amends.

Several Weddings Are on the Cards and Various Hospitalitys Will Be Shown the Yale Men.

Washington society has been extremely restless under the severe restrictions of Lent and Easter is anticipated with sincere pleasure. Holy Thursday and Good Friday witnessed a solemn suspension of even card and theater parties by those who recognize the observance of certain churches.

Weddings will be the principal interest of the functions of Easter week, and the Hunt ball and affairs for the Yale Club will contribute a fair share of the gaiety.

Among the diners of the week was a delightful company given Thursday by Mrs. Henderson of Florida avenue. The guest of honor was Miss Arnold, niece of Mrs. Henderson. Others were: Mr. and Mrs. Legard, Miss McMillan, Miss Walker, Miss Sade, Mr. Walter Lavoie, Jr., Mr. Frank Andrews, Mr. Earle, Mr. John Riddle and Baron von Stumm.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Higgins, of M street northeast, was the scene of a very pleasant social gathering last evening. Progressive euchre was played, and prizes won by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perry, Miss Hackett and Mr. Delaplane securing the "booby" premiums.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perry, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Perry, Miss Delaplane, Miss Mabel Delaplane, Miss Hackett, Mr. Charles Swank, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Perry, Miss Medaig, Mr. and Mrs. James Maters, Dr. James P. Faris, and Mr. Delaplane.

The marriage of Miss Eliza C. Jenkins to Mr. Eugene S. Holton, both of this city, will be solemnized Wednesday next at St. Augustine's Church, at 5:30 p. m. A reception will follow at the home of the bride, No. 614 Maryland avenue northeast.

Mr. and Mrs. Lister and Miss Lister are guests of Mr. Joseph Letter of Chicago, for the season of opera.

Lieutenant General and Mrs. Schofield are in the city, and are stopping at the Arlington.

Miss Anna Vernon Dorsey will leave Wednesday for New York.

Dr. and Mrs. Sowers will entertain the Yale Glee and Banjo Club at a dance, after the concert, Monday evening.

Miss Georgia Peck of Minneapolis, Minn., niece of Senator and Mrs. Burrows, is spending her Easter vacation with Miss Edson, of Sixteenth street.

Mrs. McKee will entertain the Yale Glee and Banjo Club Monday evening at her home, No. 1753 Rhode Island avenue.

Judge Talmadge, of Bridgeport, spent yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kelyca on his way to Old Point.

Senator and Mrs. Burrows are expecting their daughter, Mrs. George McNeil, from Yonkers, N. Y., Wednesday to spend ten days.

Miss Bessie Lirsh, of 1435 K street, left last evening to visit friends in Wheeling, W. Va.

Major Hall has resigned the position of assistant attorney general and will leave for his home in Griffin, Ga., the first of May.

Mrs. K. B. Wood, who has been quite ill at her home in Eckington, is much improved.

Winning this will give an art and loan exhibit at the club room on 1st street, the first week in May.

Capt. McKee, chief clerk of the Pension Office, will return to his desk today after a short illness.

Among the beauties who will pose in tableaux Easter Monday for the benefit of the preservation and restoration of the Washington mansion at Mount Vernon, is Miss Mary Caroline Washington Bond, great-granddaughter of George Washington.

The engagement of Miss Anna Elizabeth Lukin, sister of Mrs. Arthur D. Kline of Chicago, to Mr. Charles Francis Bell of Syracuse, N. Y., is announced. The date of the marriage will be set for the approaching summer.

Mr. Wallace McLean, son of Chief Clerk McLean of the health office, arrived from Princeton yesterday for a brief visit home. He is a member of the senior class in Princeton College and editor of the college club.

Mrs. Anna S. Webster, widow of the late William H. Webster, with her sister, Mrs. Hayes, left for Chicago, Ill., yesterday, where she will remain for a time at the home of her brother-in-law, Hon. W. J. Hayes.

PALMETTO STATE SOCIETY.

It Holds Its First Regular Meeting and Enjoys Itself.

The South Carolina Society, the youngest of the State social organizations at the national Capital, held its first regular meeting last evening in the hall of the Georgetown Law School, on E street, between Fifth and Sixth streets northwest.

The names of nearly fifty new members, many of whom are old residents of the city, were added to the list of membership.

The South Carolina representatives in Congress at a previous meeting had been elected honorary members, and last evening letters were received from Senator Tillman and Congressman Wilson acknowledging the compliment.

The society was organized solely for social and literary purposes, the discussion of politics or religious subjects being tabooed. The first anniversary will be celebrated on May 23 next, with a banquet. This date was chosen because that date South Carolina ratified the constitution of the United States, and became a member of the Union.

The society was entertained last evening with an excellent address by Rev. Dr. Charles A. Stakley, of the First Baptist Church, and an essay by Prof. A. Merriweather.

In the course of his remarks Dr. Stakley suggested that the society use its endeavors to compile a review of the State from the literary and historical standpoint, the political, economic and social history of the State being already well known.

Prof. Merriweather's paper treated of the early settlement of the State, its inhabitants, society, education, development, and its early forms of government.

Pupils of Rosslyn School Observe His Memorial Day with Ceremony.

Douglas Memorial Day was observed yesterday afternoon with pretty and appropriate exercises by the pupils of Rosslyn public school. The attendance was large and interested.

The program was opened by an invocation by the Rev. Dr. Brooks, pastor of the Nineteenth Street Baptist Church, which was followed by the singing of a patriotic hymn. Miss Annie Daniels played the new "Douglas March."

An address was made on the life and services of the great abolitionist by Rev. Dr. Brooks. Dr. Brooks is an admirable speaker, and treated his subject with great interest and eloquence.

A pleasing part of the program was the recitation of the pupils by Mr. L. H.
